Definitions:

Agent: The Commercial Mail Receiving Agency (CMRA).

Authorized employee: An employee of the CMRA who is authorized to act on the CMRA's behalf.

Authorized individual: A person who is authorized to pick up mail for the PMB holder.

Agreement: In consideration of delivery of my mail or our firm's mail to the agent named on Page 1, the applicant and agent agree: (1) the applicant or the agent must not file a change of address order with the Postal Service™ upon termination of the agency relationship; (2) the transfer of mail to another address is the responsibility of the applicant and the agent; (3) all mail delivered to the agency under this authorization must be prepaid with new postage when redeposited in the mails; (4) the agent must provide to the Postal Service all addresses to which the agency transfers mail; and (5) when any information required on this form changes or becomes obsolete, the applicant must file an updated application with the agent.

NOTE: The applicant must execute this form in the presence of the agent, his or her authorized employee, or a notary public. The agent uploads the original completed signed PS Form 1583 to the Postal Service's CMRA Customer Registration Database and retains the completed signed copy at the CMRA business location. The CMRA copy of PS Form 1583 must at all times be available for examination by the postmaster (or designee) and the Postal Inspection Service. The applicant and the agent agree to comply with all applicable Postal Service rules and regulations relative to delivery of mail through an agent. Failure to comply will subject the agency to withholding of mail from delivery until corrective action is taken.

at the home or business address listed in items 4f or 7c, and that the identifications listed in items 8-11 are valid. The agent must complete items 2a-2e, and items 14a and 14b if necessary (i.e., if the agent is the witness), and the customer must complete all the other items.

Privacy Act Statement: Your information will be used to administer the Commercial Mail Receiving Agency (CMRA) application, enrollment, and fulfillment processes, to verify your identity when applying for service via a CMRA, to ensure proper and secure delivery of mail to the correct recipient, and to permit delivery of your mail to your authorized agent. Collection is authorized by 39 USC 401, 403, and 404. Supplying the information is voluntary, but if not provided, we will not be able to fulfill your request for delivery of mail through an agent. We do not disclose your information without your consent to third parties, except for the following limited circumstances: incident to legal proceedings involving the Postal Service; for law enforcement purposes; to a congressional office on your behalf; to agents or contractors when necessary to fulfill a business function; to a U.S. Postal Service auditor; to labor organizations as required by applicable law; to government agencies in connection with decisions as necessary; to agencies and entities for financial matters; and for customer service purposes. In addition, information may be disclosed for the purpose of identifying an address as an address of an agent to whom mail is delivered on behalf of other persons. However, this specific routine use does not authorize the disclosure of the identities of persons on behalf of whom agents receive mail. All routine uses are subject to the following exception: Information concerning an individual who has filed an appropriate protective court order with the application will not be disclosed except pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction and subject to the approval of the USPS General Counsel.
